Mandrake

The first to utilize Mandrake (Podophyllin) and present it to the public in a convenient form, was the well-known Dr Schenck of Philadelphia, whose famous MANDRAKE PILLS, are replacing all other purgative medicines throughout the U. States. They act speedily and efficiently without producing sickness at the stomach, nausea, or griping; arousing the liver to the due performance of its functions and may thus be termed a specific for the many ailments engendered by a torpid or diseased state of this organ, from which so many are suffering in the River Plate.

Phosphatine

It is well-known that no substances act so powerfully as a restorative on the brain and entire system as Phosphates, but the great objection to their use heretofore has been the nausea, heaviness and at times excitability produced by their use.

Professor G L Austin, M.D, Boston, is the first and only one who discovered and formulated Phosphatine, a preparation that produces perfect digestion and tones the entire system, nerve, bone, muscle and tissue—which a diseased body requires.

It may be formed the great 'Brain Strengthener' and no safer, purer, more palatable or more effective preparation has ever been offered to sufferers from mental or physical debility.

LATEST NEWS.

PRESS TELEGRAMS

The following epitome of the latest news by telegraph, from all quarters, is taken from our colleagues—

Montevideo 20.

Bishop Yereguy took the oath at the Foreign Office, after which he visited President Santos, and then returned to the Cathedral for the Te Deum, at which all the members of the Government were present.

People are beginning to think that Commissary Buzo has 'disappeared' for good, and that the letter purporting to have come from him is a forgery.

WOMAN.

When our Exhibition was first opened the public acknowledged that at least it had wrought one good, namely, the pavement of the Calle Rivadavia: Gradually, as time wore on, people allowed to it a wider sphere of benefit and utility. The shopkeeper of Calle Victoria found his premises crowded with new buyers; the administrator of customs discovered his receipts increased by hundreds of thousands of fuerzes; our hotel proprietors have had to set up beds in the very 'comedores', and our steamboats, railway trains and tramways are taxed to their very utmost to carry all the passengers. In a material point of view the Exhibition has improved us and realized a success we never looked for, yet it never entered into the minds of the founders and organisers of this Exhibition that it was destined to achieve a moral or aesthetical success which will doubtless attract the very mind of Europe.

Dr. Varela's discourse in the Exhibition last Thursday, on the Education of Woman, is a paper o such high worth that we hope to see our Minister of Education translate and publish it in pamphlet form in the different European languages, so that it may reach every mother in this Republic. We deplore our inability to fit it into our columns, but request the English, German and American ladies of Buenos Aires to procure yesterday's Nacion and read through this most admirable address. It enunciates truths which in the daily attention to life's affairs are but too often forgotten.

Let schoolmasters and pedagogues preach, argue and declaim as they will, astonishing us with their learning, but, after all, the true educationist of the child is the mother. Let us educate the mothers and then we truly and lastingly educate the children. The educated woman is in truth the power of a state and its fundamental pillars. Christianity and civilisation have raised woman to her proper rank in the world; but to hold that rank and to preserve society, of which she is the ornament, we must train the mind of woman with equal care to that of the man.

It has been said, and we for one believe it, that Argentine women have larger heads than Argentine men, and are susceptible of a higher intellectuality.

The corroding influences of fashion and high life tend to deteriorate the intellectuality of the Argentine woman, and our daughters are to-day reared in a very different school from their mothers. If every handsome well-dressed girl that promenades Calle Florida was trained and educated as Dr. Varela advocates in his beautiful discourse, how different would be the husband and the children? Home influences in Buenos Aires are almost nil, owing to the street, the theatre and the extravagant bringing up of our daughters. Keep to your text, Dr. Varela. Society, even in its present hollow, showy formation, will bless you. Our children are not reared as they should be, our home influences are nil, and all because we neglect to educate Woman.

THE PROVINCIAL BANK.

The National Government has at last decreed the payment of its debt to the Provincial Bank, in the new National Bonds created by the law of Sept. 1881,—a law which we for one believed had never been promulgated to this hour. The balance sheet of the Provincial Bank will be hardly intelligible to the present generation when this debt is paid off, so familiar were we all with the figures. What the Bank will do with the new bonds remains to be seen, but it is more than probable the Bank will not try to negotiate them for many years to come, as with the large balance it holds in Europe, from the 20 millions loan, and the strong reserve here, the Bank is to-day perhaps the strongest in all South America. The following is the law:—

B. Aires April 20th 1882.

The Public Credit Department having reported that the Provincial Bonds created by the Act of 25 September 1881 are now ready, and as Art 4 of said Act provides that, on its promulgation, the Government shall hand to the Provincial Bank Bonds equivalent to the amount it owes the latter, excepting the notes guaranteed by the Nation which have not yet been amortized.

And considering that, in compliance with said Act the Accountant's Department was ordered to balance all the accounts open with the Bank up to 1st of this month, April, by which it appears that the amount due to the Bank is $fts 9,366,744, equal to $fts. 9,678,988 National Dollars; exclusive of $fts. 7,344,540, equal to 7,589,372 National Dollars of notes issued under Act of 25 September 1876 not yet redeemed, but which must be amortized in due time as the Act provides,

That although there is some difference between the balance struck by the Accountant and that by the Bank, it is merely one of form, and of relatively slight importance.

1st—To approve the account referred to, which shows the debt due the Bank to be $fts. 9,366,744 or 9,678,988 Nat. Dol.

2nd—That it be referred back to the Accountant, and being duly checked, passed to the Board of Public Credit, that the latter may hand over to the Bank the amount set forth in the previous Art, in the Bonds created by Act of Congress dated 25th September 1881.

3rd—Let this be communicated to the Bank of the Province, published &c.

ENGLISH SECTION IN THE EXHIBITION.

The exhibits presented by Messrs M. Forrester & Co. call greatly the attention of visitors, and their stand is continually besieged by eager enquirers as to the purposes and appliances of the several pieces of machinery. We understand they have booked some valuable orders, and certainly their exhibits merit the attention given to them, not only on account of the utility and variety, but also on account of the fame which attaches to the names of most of the manufacturers.

The machinery is under the charge of Mr Agar and Mr Pudney, the engineer, and both gentlemen are most attentive in satisfying all enquirers, patiently explaining the working and advantages of the several pieces of machinery.

What first strikes the view are three different engines, all under steam, and putting in motion several flour and grist mills, lathes, iron drilling machines etc, and all is done with so little noise, that a conversation may be carried on in a whisper and yet be perfectly audible. We will now proceed to give a slight sketch of the several pieces more in detail.

The most prominent machine is a fixed horizontal engine of beautiful workmanship and of such easy and noiseless motion as scarcely to be louder than the ticking of a watch. Our colleague, La Nacion, justly calls this machines the 'chiche' of the English section. It is of eight horse power nominal and 16 horse power effective, and in constructing it, the manufacturers have taken into consideration the expense of fuel in this country, and have so fitted it with the last improvements for the economy of the same. Among these improvements may be noticed the patent automatic parabolic governors in direct connection with the expansion valves, which does away with the ordinary wire drawing; again, it has Ruston's Patent waterheater which is conveniently placed, being bolted on the side of the bed plate. The exhaust steam in its escape to the air passes around 12 brass tubes, which contain the feed water, thus heating it to a high temperature before passing to the boiler. It is supplied with a tap for discharging condensed water. The solid wrought iron stays which firmly connect the cylinder to the crankshaft, and directly opposing the force of the steam, entirely relieve the bed-plate from all steam. This engine is connected with a boiler of the same horse power, multitubular system. The boiler occupies a space relatively small to the power of steam it can generate. The furnaces present a very large surface to the action of the fire by which an immense economy in fuel is obtained.

These engines are made from 4 to 30 horse power, and their special characteristics are simplicity, general efficiency and facility for erection.

Adjoining the preceding is a 4 horse power vertical engine with boiler that almost appears to be a piece of furniture for a drawing room, so beautifully is it cased in its polished mahogany framework. This engine presents the most compact and simple form in which steam-power can be employed, requiring no masonry foundation, being mounted on a substantial metal bed-plate, which contains both ash-pan and feed tank. These engines are well adapted for small industries, 'imprentas' etc, as they occupy so little space.

Close by there is a semifixed 6 horse power engine, mounted on two cast iron pedestals forming respectively the ash pan and feed tank. The flywheel can be placed on either side of the engine, and the chimney can be carried up to any height, so as to free the roof of the building. These engines are admirably adapted for situations where ordinary fixed engines cannot be conveniently erected. They are compact, easily set to work, and no expensive foundations are required.

This firm exhibits several horse power gears or 'motores de sangre' of one and two horse power. These machines are very useful for giving power and motion, where steam is not to be had, and are applicable to such purposes as flour mills, pumps, maize-shelling machines, or for the winnowing of grain. Their construction is very solid, and by changing the position of 2 small wheels an inverse motion is obtained. There is also an intermediate movement by which the speed can be accelerated, and by which motion can be given to two or more machines at same time. These machines almost render water works in country towns unnecessary, and certainly will do away with the expensive and unsightly wind-mill arrangement for raising water. Any quinta may have water for all purposes of irrigation at a very small expense, and without human labour.

There are three small mills all at work grinding wheat and maize. They are on different systems, but all equally useful and desirable. They are at present worked by steam with belts from the engines, but are intended to be moved by horse power like the machines just referred to. They are provided with sieves for separating the flour from the bran. These should be found in almost every household in the country, where maize or wheat is grown, or where animals are raised, as they not only grind the flour for human use, but they break the several grains and seeds such as beans, peas, porotos or maize for the food of animals, a process by which the animal can digest and assimilate his food, without passing through the stomach the same as it went into his mouth entirely intact and not only without any benefit to the animal, but much to his prejudice. No estancia where they pretend to take care of animals, whether horses, cattle or fine sheep, should be without one of these useful mills and their corresponding horse gears. These mills will break from 40 to 50 arrobas or grind from 20 to 25 arrobas per hour.

Our yachting and boating friends will be glad to see a small engine and screw of 4 horse power, suitable for a steam yacht or lighter. It looks charming and makes one remember the sweltering days we have passed in the Carapachay and Lujan, working at the oar like a galley slave, making pleasure a labour, whereas if our boat had been fitted up with one of these small machines we could have glided through the romantic windings of the Carapachay, enjoying our cigar, admiring the flora and fauna of the Tigre in agreeable converse with our friends. The man that invented these machines deserved well of mankind, and may they become more generalized.

There is here the most approved class of Automatic copying lathe, for making all classes of wooden utensils such as carriage spokes, lasts for boots, gun stocks, tool handles, etc. We will now be able to utilize and admire the fine graining and exquisite colors of our Chaco woods and turn them into objects of use and ornament. There is another rather formidable looking instrument close by, one of those machines that an inquisitor would have delighted in in days happily long gone by. It is a Drilling Machine, for drilling holes in iron—most useful in this iron age, if not very prepossessing in appearance.

We have now to notice two machines that must come to play a great role in the future development of the resources of the country. One of them is a Hydraulic press and filter for extracting the oil from such seeds as flaxseed, turnip-seed, mani, &c. With the immensely increased production of Flax within the last few years, grown principally for the seed, which has now become a large article of export, this press comes in to develop a new industry, by extracting the oil, and leaving the residue in the shape of oil cake for the food of animals, thus making a home industry of an article that comes easily within our reach, and of our own production, more feasible than the exploded woollen cloth factory, which not only required expensive machinery, but skilled and delicate labour. This requires nothing of that kind. There stands the machine occupying little space, and so simple in operation that half an hours instruction is all that is required to acquire accurate manipulation. Yet this machine is of the most approved class, yielding the greatest amount of oil with the slightest cost in working. The machine is of French make, but is that which is used by nearly all the English crushers. It does away with the necessity of using hair filters, a source of much expense, as they soon wear out, and require constant renewal.

The other machine is one allied to the same article of production, but deals with a different part of it. It is a scutching machine for the separation of the woody fibre from the flax, so as to make the latter an article of commerce. This is an industry of the future, but that it will become a great industry, we have little doubt of. We have to study the climatic influences, and perhaps adopt a different mode of culture for the flax, but we feel confident that flax growing will give a double yield, in the seed and in the fibre, and that two distinct industries will be developed, one for making the oil, the other for the preparation of the flax. We consequently look on this wierd looking box with its long arms like whale's fins, as a promise of the future, a beacon ahead of us. We have so many more occasions to admire antiquities and things of the past or that should be of the past, that a veritable thing of the future is a real curiosity. It is as strange to us as was the wind-mill to Don Quijote, which it not a little resembles.

There is some other machinery in Messrs Forrester and Co's. department, but space will not allow us to notice them and we will now pass to their exibits in the agricultural department.

The most notable object is one of Messrs Ruston, Proctor and Co's. thrashers, five foot drum with straw burning engine of ten horse-power. Undoubtedly this engine and thrasher are the most highly finished of any in the Exhibition. The thrasher is specially polished with the object of showing the class of wood which these manufacturers always employ in thrashers. The framework is invariably made of the very best English oak. They have always on stock to the value of over £40,000 in hard woods, and never make use of them until they have lain four years in deposit, so as to secure their being well seasoned. This system of thrasher is of the most approved, being simple in construction and of great durability, one of its great merits being the clean manner in which it delivers its grain, whether wheat or linseed. For thrashing the latter a change of screen is the only thing required. We have seen several of the many testimonials received last season by Messrs M Forrester and Co. from purchasers and we congratulate them for being the representatives of such a magnificent system of thrasher.

The engine that accompanies the thrasher is perfection and is another sample of the highly finished workmanship of Messrs Ruston, Proctor and Co. It is fitted with their patent chimney for killing sparks, and their patent straw burner. Messrs Ruston, Proctor and Co. have just made arrangements with the patentees for supplying Messrs Ransome's patent straw burners to those who may desire them.

There are two mowers exhibited by Messrs Forrester in this section, The 'Albion' and the 'Triumph', both notable and effective machines. The Albion has carried off first prize in every exhibition where it has been exhibited, and where its merits have been tested, the only true test being in the working. Last year from April to July it contested in twelve different agricultural tests, and in all gained first prize. In the agricultural contest ordered by the French Government at Roche-sur-Youre in France last year, it came into competition with the mowers of fourteen different manufacturers, amongst others those of Hornsby, Osborne, Walter A. Wood, &c, and carried off the gold medal. This mower is constructed to cut lower than that of any other system.

There are several grist mills, chaff cutters, and other machines in this section, but space will not allow us to make particular mention of them. We may just mention two little gems for the quinta, a lawn mower and roller. The former shaves as close as a barber, and throws the cut grass into a receptacle for the purpose, thus saving all trouble in sweeping.

We have again to congratulate the Messrs. Forrester on being the representatives of so many notable engineering firms. The representation of Messrs. Ruston, Proctor and Co., is a host in itself. Their laurels have been won in all parts of the world where machinery is used. In medals alone they have gained over 180, and the head of the firm, Mr. Joseph Ruston, was decorated with the Cross of the Legion of Honor at the Paris Exhibition, for the general excellency of their machinery. Besides the Threshing Machine, they are also the manufacturers of the engines that call so much attention in the English section.

The other exhibitors of the Messrs. Forrester are drawn from such well known manufacturing engineers as Harrison, M'Gregor and Co., Pickersley, Sims and Co., Smith and Coventry, A. Ransome and Co., and A. Chaplin and Co., whose names alone are guarantees for the excellence of the workmanship in their several branches.

Messrs. M. Forrester and Co. have recently been named agents for Messrs. A. and W. Smith, the most extensive manufacturers of sugar machinery in Great Britain; but unfortunately there was not time to get out a complete plant of their machinery for the Exhibition, else we would have been able to judge of the comparative merits between the English and French machinery for the elaboration of what must come to be one of our most important industries—sugar-making.

Messrs. A. Chaplin and Co,, the makers of the small marine engine and screw, were also too late to have exhibited several other specimens of their machinery, amongst other things a steam crane like those that give such satisfaction at the Catalinas Mole.

Messrs. M. Forrester and Co. deserve the warm thanks of the agricultural and productive community for having introduced so many new machines, all equally useful, and all tending to facilitate production and economise labour.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The principal topic yesterday morning was Mr Jacob Varela's eloquent address at the Pedagogues' Conference on Thursday, on the Education of Woman. It was the gem of the Conference so far, and what a genuine blessing it would be for the country if the spirit and letter of it could be carried out?

The result of Maclean's trial is what everybody expected. No one but a madman would dream of injuring good Queen Vic.

We had the pleasure of a visit yesterday from Monsignor Curley of Navarro and were glad to see him in good health: he reports rain much wanted about there.

We have to thank our kind friends Messrs Dewey and Co for sending us late papers by the Cordillera yesterday. Our own files went astray, and will probably turn up at Paysandu or Salto Grande. Put not your faith in Princes or South American Post-offices.

It is said that everything is now ready, or almost ready, for the new Lottery to begin work. The Lord Mayor has purchased 20,000 'bollillas,' at one paper dollar each, for the game, The big prize in the first Drawing will be £40,000 sterling.

Mr. Bourse, of the Banda Oriental National Museum, has come up for a peep at the Exhibition. We feel much pleasure in saluting him.

The Quartette Society gave a grand public concert at the Opera House on Thursday which delighted a large, select and appreciative audience, chiefly composed of foreigners The orchestra is remarkably fine, led by an experienced musician) Sr Melani, who really helps to play every instrument in the band. The lively overture of Euryanthe is too well known to comment upon, but the piece which followed, 'Bohemian Dance', from Tasso, composed by Goddard, is exceedingly lively and pleasing, and elicited the applause and encores of the whole house. Then came Madlle Alhaiza, who has made her appearance after a great flourish of trumpets. It is reported she is so much admired elsewhere, but I fear that will not be the case here. Massenet's grand Hungarian piece is strikingly beautiful and original, and if the Society should continue to give public concerts throughout the winter, no doubt they will meet with the support they deserve.

Old Stager

We hear from Montevideo that the famous photographic establishment of Bate and Co, of which Mr W H Osborne is the head, is not to be put in liquidation, but will continue open. Judging from the splendid show of photographic work made by Bate and Co. in our Exhibition, it would be a public loss if such an establishment were closed.

The opening of Congress is drawing near, and all the Cabinet Ministers are up to their eyes in their memorias. President Roca has also commenced his Message, and will not resume the reins at the Red House for a day or two.

We have secured a talented correspondent in Rioja, and will soon be able to keep our readers posted in everything about mines and sherry in that remote quarter.

Good news. The Provincial Government has ordered a telegraph line to be run from Junin to Lincoln. The Western Railway is going to do the job, which will cost $350,000.

Another shocking suicide was committed on Thursday by a young girl of 18 who lived with her father and family in Calle Salta. She breakfasted with the family in apparently better spirits than usual, but on retiring from table she went to her room and blew her brains out with a revolver. No one knows why this young creature did the deed. Some attribute it to grief at the recent death of her mother, others to the fact that her great personal beauty was much marred by a severe attack of small-pox.

If we die in a mad-house, our murder will be at the door of the Montevidean Post Office, or that of Buenos Aires; hard to say which; perhaps they both have a hand in it. We had a piteous note yesterday from a subscriber in the sister city stating that he had not received a Standard for four days, and that he frequently gets 3 or 4 at a time. This is too bad. The fate of the Town Hall of Athlone is not too bad for a Post Office that does business in this fashion.

Senator Ortiz de Rosus made a splendid speech on Thursday in the Chambers against the new Provincial Capital scheme; he said he knew he would be outvoted, nevertheless he cut up the project in slashing style. The Senators, however, are evidently bent on passing the measure, and the Deputies will do ditto. The apathy of the people of the province, who will have to pay the piper, is extraordinary at such a crisis for their pockets. The fact is they are too well off; if they were not so wealthy, they would take more interest in the voting away of their money.

Our native colleagues now all re-echo our note of alarm about the fish poisoned in the Riachuelo being sold in the streets. Never before has such a shocking attempt on the public health been made under the noses of the authorities.

It is truly refreshing to read the debates in the Brazilian Chambers about the Paso Hondo affair. They prove that all the furious nonsense and telegrams about Brazil moving troops, backing up Italy in the Volpi business, etc, etc were pure invention. The attack of the opposition orators was brilliant and eloquent, but it broke like foam on a rock against the icy matter-of-fact replies of the Imperial Minister for Foreign Affairs, whose closing words, in answer to another question about the murder of a Brazilian Vice-Consul in Corrientes, were as follows:—"Parliamentary declaimers once dragged us into a war that cost the country much blood and much money. They should profit by the experience of the past. The sad event referred to has no political importance whatever, and our representative in Buenos Aires and the Argentine Minister of Foreign Affairs have already agreed on the steps to be taken in the case." An attempt to 'draw' the Minister on the subject of Misiones also failed in the most signal manner, H.E. declaring that he 'had nothing particular to say on the subject, and even if he had, it would not be for the public interest to say it." The whole tone of the Minister's remarks evidenced the most friendly feeling towards the River Plate Republics.

Topcoats and 'tapados' have suddenly emerged from their winter retreats. There was more than an autumn nip in the air yesterday, especially at morn and dewy eve.

H.M. popular representative here, Mr G G Petre, will shortly leave for Asuncion in one of the gunboats on the station, to present his credentials to President Caballero as British Plenipotentiary there. It is a nice season for a trip up the river, and we wish H.E. a pleasant one.

Another bit of a hitch at the Exhibition. Some exhibits are found not to be strictly 'Continental' and will be at once removed.

The two Custom House officers who prevented a quantity of jewelry being smuggled into the country some weeks ago have received half the proceeds of its sale, as provided by law. They pocket $36,000 between them. An agreeable windfall.

Madame Pezzana and her company are going to move to the Politeama, where she will play Hamlet for the first time here. It will be a great treat. The great actress intends to invite the Press to a tea first, just to show its representatives what her idea of the mad Dane is.

BRITISH HOSPITAL

Buenos Aires, 21st April 1882.

To the Editor of the Standard

Dear Sir,

I beg you to insert in your paper the following:—

Yesterday evening my cook, an Irish girl, had the misfortune to fall from an iron staircase leading to her room, headlong into the patio, cutting open her head in a terrible manner.

I immediately called in Dr Pea can who lives close to me, and after rendering her the first medical assistance, we agreed that the best thing to be done was to take the girl to the British Hospital, and to insure her admittance, he gave me his card, stating thereon that it was a case of accident.

I sent for a carriage and accompanied the girl myself, but what was my surprise and indignation on arriving at the Hospital to be told by the Doctor in charge that it was impossible to receive her as there was not a single unoccupied bed. I tried to urge her reception owing to the nature of the case, but it was all to no purpose, and turning suddenly his back upon me, he went up stairs saying he could do nothing and left me standing in the hall alone.

I then went to the Italion Hospital, and although at first I was told there was no room and that not being an Italian, it was impossible to receive the girl, on my explanations and the Doctor himself seeing the urgency of the case, she was without further demur admitted and attended to.

I now leave it to you and your readers to judge which of the two institutions is the most charitable.

I remain,
Dear Sirs
Yours Truly
Theor. de Bary

(We call the attention of the Committee to this well founded complaint and feel quite certain they will have the poor girl at once removed from the Italian to the British Hospital, as the she cannot speak a word of Italian or Spanish.)

The first news on 'Change to-day was unfavorable, and it was rumoured that another exporter was in difficulties. Some parties said that the matter had been arranged satisfactorily, but it always gave room for conversative and remark, and conversation is the enemy of credit.

Cedulas rule firm, but dull. Series A at 101 and nothing doing. Series E comes more on the market, and they are selling it to lend the money on Bank Shares.

This was the lowest day for National Bank Shares since the memorable month of last November, and although all the buyers at the ring were the best men in the market, still the bears have so banged the market that prices did not advance but receded. People who yesterday evening in the heat and excitement of the liquidation room bought at 108 and 108½ sold out to-day. What they considered cheap last night was dear to-day, and there is no denying it that there was much of a panic in the share market this morning. All other business on the Bolsa seemed forgotten, so plunged is the whole gremio of brokers into the Bank Share market, nothing to-day seemed to improve the stock. It was now known that the Government had decreed the payment of 450,000 pats to the Bank in Bonds, and that in a day or two the Government will publish a decree ordering the circulation of National Bank Notes in the Capital. Yet all this did not in the least help the shares, and prices closed weaker and lower than they opened.

Roads and Bridges very firm and in demand at 1 premium.

When the Nat. Government pays off the Provincial Bank it seems the Nat. Bank will then have currency for its notes in this city.

Messrs Ebbeke & Co. sold yesterday in judicial auction the house No. 337 Calle Tacuari, 7.50 front by 47 depth, 7 rooms, for 193,000 m/c. Buyer Sr. Echeparabordo. The upset price was 121,960 m/c.

The surveys for the extension of the Southern Railway to Tandil were finished last week, and the whole line is marked out with posts. The total length is about 36 miles, and there will be only one intermediate station, about midway, between Ayacucho and Tandil. After leaving Ayacucho the line will run through the Reconquista estancia, which belongs to the Jacobe family, then, for two leagues, through Don Leonardo Pereira's splendid property, and on through the camps of Higuera, Santa Maria and others to the outskirts of Tandil where the station will be built, on the other side of the arroyo on which the town stands. The sites of both the terminus and the one intermediate station have already been selected. The farmers of the district are in high spirits at the prospect before them, and the surveying party were received with enthusiasm everywhere.

At afterhours the Bank Share market ruled dull; no King entered the room as on yesterday to sell, and the market seemed as it were left to itself; prices varied from 106½ to 107½ and the last sale 500 was effected at 107½.

Exchange rules weak, and there was some talk of returned bills; the rates to-day were on Paris 5.17, Antwerp 5.19, London 49⅜.

The graserias, owing to the great increase in the flocks, it is thought, will work this winter.

At the Municipality to-day there was a prolonged meeting; the board passed the following measures—

RICHARD NEW MARKET.
2 SQUARES FURTHER RADIO TO RIVADAVIA MARKET
LANUS NEW MARKET PLAZA LORRA.
NEW REGLAMENTO EXTENDING TO BARRACAS, FOR SIDE WALKS AND ENCLOSURES OF FINCAS.

The meeting held until half past 5 o'clock and was very animated.

The Guadiana with dates to 27th will be up in the morning, she made a splendid run out in 24 days.

The contract for paving with adoquines the Calle Callao was signed yesterday. Soon the whole city will be adoquinado.

Mr Benitez has been named Inspector of National Bank, to succeed Mr Rom who leaves on very important land business for Europe on Monday next.

On May first the Western railway runs its trains on the Pergamino branch to Mr Uriosty estancia.

There can be no longer any doubt as to the great lawsuit between the shareholders of Colon and the Municipality. On 25th the Lord Mayor will close Colon.

A great Joint Stock estancia at Salto has been formed by Messrs Del Valle, Rosa, Demaria, Rodriguez, Cambaceres and Carranza; capital 500,000 pats, 12 leagues of camp, and 20,000 head of cattle.

N.B.—This list counts from Boca upwards.

I was glad to see in your issue of to-day an able article on the state of the Riachuelo, which is not in the least exaggerated, and I only hope it will lead to some good, although we poor Boca people have almost given it up as a bad job.

To-day was a greater spearing day than yesterday, and 'sábanas' and 'bagres' of all sizes were to be seen either dead on the surface of the water, or in semi-intoxicated state, too stupified to get out of harm's way.

I send you a bottle of the 'poison', with which I hope you will be highly edified, but please don't put your noses too near.

Said water was taken from Riachuelo at 3 o'clock p.m. to-day, and I may add is a poor sample, as the Riachuelo is in a much more reasonable state to-day than it has been for days past.

Amer. brigantine John McDermott hauled out to-day.

Messrs Bunge & Co., in their important produce circular, under date Antwerp, 23rd March, 1882, give the following:—

Wool—
We have no alteration to mention as regards the position of our market since our last issue; demand has been very limited and by private contract only 898 bales have changed hands, whilst in a public sale of damaged wools held on 21st inst. 345 balas have been sold. Notwithstanding the quietness of our market holders are not inclined to meet buyers' ideas, encouraged as they are by the satisfactory results both of the London and Havre sales; on the other hand an amelioration of the trade, chiefly in England and Germany, has become more apparent and there is a chance that during next summer and autumn we may see a steadier market and better prices. Havre sales were held from the 14th to the 17th instant; competition was good especially for better sorts for which fully January auction rates were paid, whilst inferiors as well as Montevideos were rather neglected. Out of 8,016 bales offered 4,395 bales could be sold. News from the London auctions, which will probably close on the 21st inst., continues to be satisfactory; most descriptions of Australian wool now are ½ penny dearer than at the opening. Capes, however, remain unchanged and prices are perhaps more irregular.

Our statistical position is now the following:

		Bales.
Stock on 9th March, 1882		33,510
Arrivals from Buenos Aires	8,792
Do Montevideo	1,395
Do Rivers	—	10,187
Sales by private account	898	43,679
Public sales	345	—
Transit	2,913	4,186
Stock to-day		39,511

Sheepskins—
There is but little enquiry for this article and transactions during the last fortnight only comprise 19 bales, Stock, 91 bales.

Public sales were held in Liverpool on 15th instant, competition was fairly active without change in values from last auctions, and of 286 bales offered 202 bales found buyers.

Hides—
The market is quiet and steady and transactions are moderate, but regular; prices remain unchanged.

The following parcel has been sold here to arrive:—

All the hides of 20-25 kilos and 25-32 kilos out of 3,000 B. Aires saladero Juan Repetto, Magdalena, ox 66 lbs., per Minho, at secret prices.

In England the markets are very firm and tolerable business is reported; stocks are nearly all cleared.

In Havre purchases have been made for English account, amongst which 8,377 salted Montevideo old season ox on private terms, probably equal to 7d, tare 6, which circumstance has caused a stiffening of prices in that place.

Floating cargoes are inquired for and the third cargo of Liebig's shipment has been placed for the West of England at 7¼d for heavy ox.

Killings in South America on 15th instant amounted to 649,000 head against 341,000 at the same time last year.

Tallow—
Our market is still bare of stock; the 150 pipes beef tallow, which have just arrived per str. Hevelius, have been reshipped to Liverpool, owners expecting to obtain there better prices than in our market.

The following advices from Paris after the Union Generale collapse may greatly interest this market, where the wild speculation in Bank shares holds such empire over the Bolsa mind.:—

"It is reasonable to suppose that the recent collapse at the Paris Bourse will have the effect of checking, if only temporarily, the reckless multiplication of speculative enterprises in France, though the latest mail advices disclose some facts which strongly suggest that further weeding out will be among the incidents of the early future. In January, for instance, no fewer than forty-three new joint-stock companies, with a total capital of 222,000,000 of francs, were gazetted; while twelve others added 140,000,000 to their capital. Among the latter were the now defunct 'Union Generale' which increased its capital from 100,000,000 to 160,000,000; and the 'Credit Provincial', which also suspended after having, with a modesty that is characteristic of the time, enlarged its capital from 12,000,000 to 37,500,000, or over 300 per cent. One of the principal new companies, we observe, was the Society for the Utilization of Electric Power, with a capital of 75,000,000, founded by the 'Union Generale.' The disasters which have overtaken that concern will probably cause its abandonment. Five other companies have a capital ranging all the way from 10,000,000 to 25,000,000. Among other phenomenal ventures are seven journals, including a diminutive financial paper, published in French and English, with a capital of 1,500,000 francs. There is, also, a company which, with more enterprise, purposes to embark in the business of breeding ostriches in Algeria, with a million capital; another for placing 'pigeon-shooting' upon a solid commercial basis—capital, 2,000,000 francs. In scanning the list of these dubious ventures, it is significant that but a comparatively small number propose to develop any regular trade or commerce, but rather appeal to the untried and experimental. It is safe to say that one and all are tubbles of the airiest kind, and that their collapse like that of innumerable predecessors of the same speculative family, is but a question of time."

The Cordillera's Mails.

London, March 22nd.

The French Senate has passed the Compulsory Education Bill, substantially in the form in which it was sent up by the Chamber, but some new amendments remain to be discussed. In the Chamber yesterday M. Leon Say explained some portions of his financial scheme.

The Arab insurgents attacked and carried off much booty from Matwityah, between Gabes and the Tripoli frontier. The weather is improving, and the French operations in Southern Tunis are expected to be commenced immediately.

Numerous small bands of insurgents have reappeared in the Crivoscie districts, but the Austrian troops held possession of all the strategical points in the country.

The Emperor of Germany had a prolonged conference yesterday with Prince Bismarck. The Emperor has recovered from the effects of his recent accident.

The Spanish Cortes reassembled on Monday, when Sr Camacho stated the Ministerial programme of business. The Opposition parties are not expected to adopt any active measures at present.

The Ministerial members of the Servian Parliament were received by the King after the prorogation. The contests for the seats vacated by the retiring Radical minority are expected to be severe, but the Government rely upon obtaining the support of the nation.

The Chinese Government has intimated to the United States Minister at Pekin its dissatisfaction with the recent legislation of Congress prohibiting Chinese immigration, and there is reason to believe that if the Bill be not modified, the Chinese Legation will be withdrawn from Washington.

The amount of damage done by the fire in the Royal Albert and Victoria Docks, Canning-town, early on Saturday, has been greatly underestimated. The marine engineering works of Messrs. Green and Kirkaldy in the Victoria Docks contained some of the most modern machinery, and it is now stated that the damage done amounts to between £2,000 and £3,000.

Mentone

Queen Victoria has expressed herself delighted with her stay here. Her Majesty, accompanied by Princess Beatrice, took a drive to-day in an open carriage in the direction of Cospel. Her Royal Highness paid a visit to the Magnat Artistic Pottery Works.

Great animation prevails in the town, which is gaily decorated with flags in preparation for a fete which is to take place this evening in honour of the Queen of England.

The Land Act—It is stated to be the intention of the Government to appoint six additional sub commissions to administer the Land Act. A separate Sub-Commission will be appointed forthwith for Armagh and Tyrone, this step having been rendered necessary by the great increase in the number of applications to the Land Commission.

A meeting of members of the House of Commons who are also members of the Reform Club was held yesterday to consider the recent blackballing of two brothers of Mr. Chamberlain, M.P., and a prominent Manchester Liberal. It was decided to convene a special meeting to propose that future elections to the club should be left in the hands of the committee.

M. Tissot, the new French Ambassador, arrived in London yesterday.

The double-turret armour-clad war ship Colossus was safely launched yesterday at Portsmouth.

The Marquis of Huntly yesterday surrendered to meet charges of obtaining money by false pretences, and he was admitted to bail, at the Mansion-house and at Bow street, where the charges had been respectively made.

THE STATE OF IRELAND.

Dublin, March 20.

Another shocking murder has been committed in this city in mysterious circumstances. The victim was a young man named Peter Andrews, a hairdresser's assistant, residing in the Coombe. The facts are briefly these:—Between 1 and 2 o'clock this morning the deceased, who was respectably dressed, was found in a dying condition in Tighe street, off Queen-street. Inspector Marshall and Sergeant Doyle, D Division, who were on duty in the locality, had him removed to Richmond Hospital, but it was discovered there that he was dead. An examination of the body was made by Dr Kidd. Blood which flowed from behind one of his ears indicated that he had either been shot or stabbed; the wound is about three inches in depth, and there is no doubt that it was the cause of death. Two small punctured wounds, supposed to have been caused by bullets, were also observed in the back of his head. Mr Murphy, police inspector, having been communicated with, proceeded with three constables to Tighe street. Entering the house No. 6, he saw spots of blood in the hall which were partly covered with ashes. In a front room on the first floor, to which they were guided by the tracks, they saw larger pools of blood, and under a bed occupied by a man named Matthew Kinsella they discovered a bundle of clothes which were wet, an attempt having been made to wash out stains of blood, but without success, as the stains were still visible. It is supposed by the police that the unfortunate young man was shot in the room, as some persons in the neighbourhood state that they heard two shots in the house. He could not have been long in the street before discovered by the police, for his clothes were dry, although it had been raining. Kinsella was at once taken into custody. He was unable to account for the state of his clothes. Kinsella's brother, before he was made aware of the prisoner's arrest, was brought to see the body, and at once identified the deceased. The prisoner was brought up this afternoon before the chief magistrate of police and charged on suspicion with the murder. He was formally remanded until Friday.

Intelligence has been received in town that Mr Doherty, sub-inspector of constabulary, was fired at last night while returning to Tubbercurry, in company with Miss Corry, of Sligo. They were met by an armed party, disguised, who fired at them and wounded Mr Doherty in the knee. Miss Corry also received a wound in the arm. Some accounts state that he was hurrying to quell a riot in Tubbercurry.

The tenants on the estate of the Marquis of Ely have adopted a very determined and significant course in sending a deputation, who left Enniskillen to-day, to the south of France to have an interview with his lordship for the purpose of laying before him certain resolutions adopted at a meeting held last week. They complain of the agent, and demand his removal; also a permanent abatement of rent and the abolition of boy rent.

March 21st

Another brutal murder has been committed near Clonbur. The youngest son of a gamekeeper of Lord Ardilaun named Gibbons, returning home by the high road from Clonbur at 6 o'clock on Friday evening, was way laid by 3 men, who fractured his skull with heavy stones. His mother was also badly wounded in the head; she was rendered insensible, and is in a precarious state. The poor boy, who was only 17 years of age, never recovered consciousness and died on Sunday. His family are well-to-do and respectable, and the only reason that can be alleged for this murder is that his father has always done his duty faithfully towards his employer. Several persons were present when the attack was made upon him, but instead of rendering help they ran away. There was good light at the time, but they say they do not know the murderers. Three men have been arrested.

An attempt was made last night to blow up a house in Nelson-street, in this city, in which some detectives of the constabulary force were residing. The coal cellar of the house was broken, the front of the house damaged, and several windows shattered. On searching the area this morning the police found some pieces of lead and a canister with a fuse at the top. It was charged with pellets of lead. Happily no one was hurt, although there were some detectives in the house at the time.

The inquest on the body of Peter Andrews, the young man who was murdered in Tighe-street, in this city, on Sunday night, was held to-day. Edward Andrews, the father of the deceased, stated that he last saw his son alive about 5 o'clock on Sunday evening, and he then left the house with a young man named Lambert. He was over 18 years of age, and was quiet and temperate. Witness did not know that any person had an ill-feeling towards him. He had been seen in company with Matthew Kinsella (in custody) nearly every Sunday for the previous six months. Witness never knew of any ill-feeling between them. Lambert lived in the same house with witness, and came home at about 11 o'clock on Sunday. The moment he entered the house, the witness asked him where the deceased was. Lambert said he left the deceased standing in Thomas-street with Mat. Kinsella. Other evidence having been given the inquest was again adjourned.

NAVARRO

A large number of Irishmen assembled to-day—St. Patrick's Day, 17th March—in Navarro, and agreed to establish a club there and then, for the purpose of expressing opinion about and collecting funds for national purposes in Ireland.

Many speeches were made expressing the deepest sympathies with their friends in Ireland, who are incarcerated, not because they have committed any offence against the laws of Great Brittain or any other laws, but because they hold views and convictions contrary to the state of things in our native land. They spoke with enthusiastic admiration of the Irish ladies who labor with such devoted charity in relieving the miseries of the poor victims of English rule in Ireland

They declared their undiminished love for the land of their birth and that while they live and look on the ground they will never forget old Ireland. They encourage the men at home to persevere in their just demand.

Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne

(Ex Army Medical Staff)

IS THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

CAUTION.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. P. Wood stated that Dr. J Collis Browne was undoubtedly the inventor of Chlorodyne; that the story of the defendant, Freeman, being the inventor was deliberately untrue, which he regretted had been sworn to. Eminent hospital physicians of London stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the discoverer of Chlorodyne; that they prescribe it largely, and mean no other than Dr. Browne's.—See Times, July 12th 1864.

The Public, therefore, are cautioned against using any other than

Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne.

REMEDIAL USES AND ACTION.

This invaluable remedy produces quiet, refreshing sleep, relieves pain, calms the system, restores the deranged functions, and stimulates healthy action of the secretions of the body, without creating any of those unpleasant results attending the use of opium. Old and young may take it at all hours and times when requisite. Thousands of persons testify to its marvellous good effects and wonderful cures, while medical men extol its virtues most extensively.

CHLORODYNE is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.

CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in Diarrhœa, and is the only specific in Cholera and Dysentery.

CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitation and Spasms.

From Symes & Co., Pharmaceutical Chemists, Medical Hall, Simla, Jan. 5th 1880. To J. T. Davenport, Esq., 33, Great Russell Street, Bloomsbury, London "Dear Sir, we embrace this opportunity of congratulating you upon the wide-spread reputation this justly-esteemed medicine, Dr. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne, has earned for itself, not only in Hindostan, but all over the East. As a remedy of general utility, we much question whether a better is imported into the country, and we shall be glad to hear of its finding a place in every Anglo-Indian home. The other brands, we are happy to say, are now relegated to the native bazaars, and, judging from their sale, we fancy their sojourn there will be but evanescent. We could multiply instances ad infinitum of the extraordinary efficacy of Dr. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne in Diarrhœa and Dysentery, Spasms, Cramps, Neuralgia, the Vomiting of Pregnancy, and as a general sedative, that have occurred under our personal observation during many years. In Choleraic Diarrhœa, and even in the more terrible forms of Cholera itself, we have witnessed its surprisingly controlling power. We have never used any other form of this medicine than Collis Browne's, from a firm conviction that it is decidedly the best, and also from a sense of duty we owe to the profession and the public, as we are of opinion that the substitution of any other than Collis Browne's is a "deliberate breach of faith on the part of the chemist to prescriber and patient alike." We are sir, faithfully yours, Symes & Co., Members of the Pharm. Society of Great Britain. His Excellency the Viceroy's Chemists."

Extract from the General Board of Health, London, as to its efficacy in Cholera—"So strongly are we convinced of the immense value of this remedy that we cannot too forcibly urge the necessity of adopting it in all cases."

CAUTION—None genuine without the words 'Dr J Collis Browne' on the Government Stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.
